

Hosted PBX by Golden West

Active Calls

The image on the right shows an active call window that displays the caller ID and call time. The three controls at the bottom of the window let you hold, hang up, or transfer the call. If you select transfer, a field appears for entering the extension of the recipient. If you prefix the recipient's extension number with 03, the call goes straight to voicemail.

